In-ear Headset with Microphone

The most allround quality stereo in-ear headset for use at home, in your office or while travelling. The excellent sound quality makes the headset perfect for applications like listening to music, playing games and chatting. This headset is suitable for many MP3 players and smartphones like iPhone, HTC, Blackberry and Nokia. The bundled PC convertor cable allows you to use it as a normal headset (with separate jack connectors for audio and microphone) on any PC and/or notebook. With 3 different sizes of ear buds you will always have a perfect fitting earphone. A remotecontrol is integrated in the cord and a convenient travel pouch is included.

Highlights

- > Including microphone and 3.5mm jack connector which works with e.g. iPhone and HTC
- > Perfect fit (3 sizes of silicon ear tip sleeves included)
- > Including converter for computer usage (female jack to jack plugs microphone and headphone)
- > Slim and light weight design including travel pouch
- > Complete sound experience with noise defense and super bass
